House Passes FEPC Measure

The Missouri House of Representatives has approved a revised Fair Employment Bill. The first vote of the important legislation, which will put Missouri in step with the Federal Civil Rights Act, was 119 to 19, with 14 Republicans and 3 Democrats voting "No."

Rejects O'Fallon Park For School

Plans for the site of a proposed elementary school eluded when they started this week, at the area of Carter, Holly and Adams. The alternate plan of O'Fallon Park for the site for the 30-room school was rejected by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment after a closed meeting, with school representatives in the of-

Judge Smith Katzenbach Addresses Luncheon

More than 200 distinguished civic, labor, business, religious and social leaders gathered in the Bright Room of the Chase Hotel, gave warm, prolonged applause to a speech delivered by Michigan Supreme Court Justice Otis M. Smith here Tuesday. This noon luncheon meeting, sponsored by the Greater St. Louis Conference on Equal Opportunity in Housing, was opened with an eloquent prayer of invocation by Rabbi Benson Short, Fritts Shook (Venezky) Israel Congregation. Myron Schwartz, member St. Louis County Commission on Human Relations, delivered a message of welcome from St. Louis County Superior, Lawrence H. Ross. Daniel L. Schaffly, member of the St. Louis Board of Education, served as general chairman, with

ROBERT E. WILSON, JR., was ordered disbursed as a St. Louis lawyer by the Missouri Supreme Court for embezzling $8312 from the Ferris-Harris Home for the Aged. Wilson had been fired as president of the Home during an investigation into the handling of the Home's funds. The court said that Wilson convicted himself of stealing. His made restitution of the funds.

NAACP Demands Inquiry!

By BUDDY LONESOME
The entire community reeled with shock this week, on learning of the brutal shooting of a 17-year-old prisoner, in the yard of the 24th district police station—by a cop!
The Police Affairs Committee of the local NAACP met in emergency session to protest.
Not the citizens themselves, are fighting back. In at least two violent instances, police were van-handled in a king-size disturbance in Negro neighborhoods.
The slain youth, Melvin Craven, was unarmed—and handcuffed, with his hands pinioned behind his back—when killed.
Patrolman Darrel Rommel put a .38 cal. bullet through the back of young Craven's head.
The police officer later reported that Craven sought to flee, after the youth was arrested as a burglary suspect. Another police officer, Patrolman Theodore Chrus, was present with Rommel when the shooting took place. However, Patrolman Chrus did not join Rommel in shooting down Craven.

Entire Family Vanishes In Mississippi

An "all-out active investigation" by the Federal Bureau of Investigation is underway to determine the whereabouts of a Negro family of eight.
A Department of Justice spokesman said such an investigation is undertaken only when there is the possibility of kidnapping, violation of civil rights, or some other federal crime has been committed.
The disappearance of the Ackers family—Loren, 44, a farm laborer; his wife, Zella Mae; and their six children—was revealed by Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party candidate Mrs. Ann

SNCC Leader Visits Here

John Lewis, 35-year-old National Chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), was in St. Louis this week and last the Argus.
"Our work in St. Louis is not over; 500 people have been fired from their jobs in St. Louis, Ala., because they participated in the march from Selma to Montgomery, or because they have attempted to register to vote. The dream is over. But now people must live in constant fear of economic reprisal, harassment, and intimidation."
Lewis spoke at a founding meeting of a St. Louis office of "Friends of SNCC" to be staffed by him by Mr. David Finley, a theological student from Chicago. The meeting, an open house and art exhibit at the home of Mrs. Phyllis Margolin in Ladue, was attended by 150 persons.

Rep. Howard Is Honored

State Representative Raymond Howard was honored by the St. Louis Bar Association this week. Representative Howard was presented the grade for distinguished service in the Missouri Legislature during the Mountain program of the Bar Association held at the Chase-Park Hotel.

STARS OF THE "EAST OF EDEN" were in town this week promoting the new Universal Studios movie. They are: Victoria Carroll, a red-haired and green-eyed Irish girl, daughter of vaudeville entertainers; Mike Taka, who blends a Japanese cultural background with an American personality and statuesque Dawn Villers, a former Miss Urban League. She is 5 feet 9 inches tall, acts, dances and sings in night clubs. She also models high fashion clothes and does secretarial work and television commercials.

Gateway Bank To Open Soon

The first national bank to be opened in St. Louis in over thirty years is taking shape in a building located at Union and Palm, which contains over 10,000 square feet of space. The new bank will be known as Gateway National Bank with an original capitalization of one-half million dollars. Gateway intends to make available a full range of fundamental banking services which nationally chartered banks are permitted to provide.

Located just a few doors south of the Chevrolet plant on Palm, it is the first bank in Missouri to be organized by Negroes. While it will serve the community at large, it expects to be especially helpful to Negroes who have had difficulty in obtaining credit from other sources.

The staff and Board of Directors are bilingual.

There are more than 300 stockholders in Gateway National Bank, many of them from the St. Louis community.

CHIEF OFFICERS
Principal officers are: Dr. Benjamin F. Davis, a prominent St. Louis dentist, chairman of the board; C. W. Galt, a real estate broker and mortgage banker, president; Thomas R. Jones, a former federal bank examiner, ex-

Hillo again! For many teens and tweens this is the week of GRADUATION! ... and we dedicate the following words of wisdom: Vincent Peale to all you guys and dolls who have just graduated from elementary-secondary schools or college: "Graduation is like a threshold over which we step into the exciting life which is in store for us ... exciting because it is a challenge ... because we are not sure what wonderful things await us. The door is now open, inviting us to walk through it."

New beginnings, new plans, new hopes for the future; all these are part of graduation. And new worlds to conquer, perhaps quite literally! For who of us knows what the open air will bring? Let us, however, meet the challenge of tomorrow, confident that God will lead us by the hand, will help us meet the future with faith, trust, and unbounded optimism."

Art Studio At Summer Institute
The Art Studio, an intensive training session for elementary and junior high school students, will be a feature of the Lewis and Clark Summer Institute, sponsored by the Clayton School District. The purpose is to provide invaluable help to art students regardless of the previous experience or talent; students may choose projects from a wide variety and receive daily guidance from teachers. The Art Studio will be in the Ballvue School, 1027 Ballvue Avenue. The instructors are Crawford Edwards and Robert Solomon, Clayton School Art Department. Students in grades 4-6 will be accepted. Tuition for Clayton residents is $20.00, for half-daying and $35.00 for full daying. An additional materials fee of $12.50 is necessary for enrollment. Non-residents may enroll for a slightly higher tuition.

Chrysler Builds Truck Plant

Chrysler Corporation will break ground for its new St. Louis Truck Assembly Plant on Tuesday, June 22, J. F. Kerigan, vice president and group executive—Car and Truck Assembly Group, announced.

He said Governor Warren E. Hearnes has been invited to give the principal speech at the ground-breaking for the new plant, which will be located next to the present Chrysler Corporation St. Louis Assembly Plant.

Kerigan will be in St. Louis for ten of the U.S. Public Health Service. He estimated recently that nine out of ten American men over 45 have at least a "latent" case of emphysema. Between one and two million persons have the disease in severe form, he says. Women are the lucky ones; emphysema attacks a far higher proportion of men.

Like a quiet marauder, the disease comes on slowly and steadily, it attacks the breaks down the numerous little air sacs and they bleed vessels of the lung. Result: the lung loses its elasticity. Its ability to get rid of stale used-up air is impaired. The breathing process may become a desperate struggle, often straining the heart and lungs to no longer function and death results.

Exactly what causes emphysema isn't known. A chronic cough and undue shortness of breath are typical symptoms. It's apt to follow a long succession of colds with coughs, or pneumonia, or chronic bronchitis. Cigarette smoking while not a proved cause of emphysema, is usually found to have been a long-standing habit with those that have the disease.

As yet there is no cure for emphysema. If the condition is detected early, a lot can be done to make the sufferer more comfortable, enable him to breathe better with the equipment he has, and help him maintain a fairly normal standard of living.

The Tuberculosis and Health Society suggests that you see your doctor for a check-up if a cough refuses to go away or shortness of breath sets in. You'll breathe easier if you do!

Warns Against Fraudulent Schools

Despite efforts to warn people about so-called "Civil Service Schools," A. H. Sonntag, Director of the St. Louis Civil Service Region, reports an increase in complaints from persons being asked to sign contracts for training to pass Civil Service tests.

He said that these so-called "Civil Service Schools" are particularly active around graduation time. Though exaggerated claims about getting government jobs, these schools are able to get people to sign for correspondence courses costing up to $300.00 or more.

Sonntag pointed out that these schools are not operated by the Government and they have no endorsement from any Federal agency, including the Civil Service Commission. He said that the schools frequently implied that they can help their students get a Government job. Actually, he

About 150 business and civic leaders are being invited to attend the program. Ground breaking will be at 11 a.m. adjacent to the car assembly plant which is located on a 34-acre site fronting on Highway 66 approximately 15 miles west of St. Louis in Fenton, with Gov. Hearnes as principal speaker.

After the ground breaking, the group will go to a nearby country club for a reception sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of Metropolitan St. Louis, followed by a luncheon. Kerigan will be the principal speaker at an after-luncheon speakers program.

Stamp Retailers Get Authorization

St. Louis food retailers, who have been operating under the present pilot food stamp program, must be re-authorized under the new permanent program, according to John T. Means, who supervises the local program for the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service.

Means advised that all St. Louis food retailers now participating in the program should return their application cards as soon as possible, so that new cards can be issued before the permanent program opens July 1.

Those retailers must have the new salmon-colored authorization card before they can continue to accept coupons.

According to Means, the major change in the new food stamp program concerns the foods which may be sold to needy families participating in the program.

Formerly, coffee, tea, cocoa and bananas could not be sold for food coupons. Under the new program, these food items may be sold.

However, imported foods which are so labeled and imported meats and meat products may not be purchased with food coupons.

Clerk Slain Accidentally

A 15 year old youth was accidentally shot and killed while at work in a confectionery, Sunday.

The victim, James Hughes, Jr., was taken to Homer Phillips hospital dead on arrival.

Admitting the shooting was 16 year old father clerk who was not charged in the mishap.

The dead youth was accidentally wounded by his co-worker while they were working inside the Jxy Delicatessen, 4301 Cote Brillante.

Police said Hughes' fellow clerk was looking under a counter and observed a gun. He started playing with it and the gun discharged, striking Hughes in the chest.

US Will Put Three Men On Moon, Explore Surface, Return

Three brave American astronauts will fly to the Moon in the next five years. Their mission will be to land an American spacecraft on the Moon, to explore the Moon's surface, and then to return to earth.

The United States is today making every effort to be sure these astronauts will be the first people from earth to land on the Moon.

The dramatic success of White and McDivitt's four-day orbit in the Gemini 4 capsule, reaffirms our determination to reach the Moon by the end of this decade.

On the day before White and McDivitt lifted off from Cape Kennedy, the Senate voted 79 to 4 in support of the U.S. Space program, approving the use of $2 billion dollars for the next year's space missions.

This includes the launching of six more two-man Gemini flights like the ones we have seen this year.

Emphysema Is Toughest Infection Of Respiratory

The name of the ailment is Emphysema. Not only is this a hard name to pronounce (try it this way: Em-fiss-EM-uh), but doctors are now calling emphysema one of the toughest respiratory infections to avoid after a certain age. For men, at any rate.

If that seems surprising, consider the word of Dr. Albert Roberts, chief of the Cardiopulmonary (heart-lung) Disease Division from Missouri. The stamina, enthusiasm, and dedication of our Peace Corps volunteers is inspiring many people around the world.

When Admiral Claude V. Rickets died last year, Missouri lost one of its most outstanding naval officers. Admiral Rickets' grew up in southwest Missouri. He attended a six-room school to Green County.

All across the country, the American men who won the battle of Bataan, Okinawa, and Two Jims remain deeply grateful for Claude Rickets' courageous leadership.

Last week I visited Fair Game, to dedicate a Navy Corner in the high school library. The corner commemorates the life of Admiral Rickets.

He had given his entire adult life to the service of America. At the height of his career, he was appointed Vice Chief of U.S. Naval Operations by President Kennedy.

As leader of the two world, the United States must continue to produce men like Claude Rickets. We must remain strong while we urge the communities to stop their aggression. We must be willing to fight for freedom while we must do all we can to convince nations to live in peace.

Kids Catch Fireflies For Cash

The Annual Collection of Fireflies by the Sigma Pi Phi Scientists Club is now in progress. All youths are invited to participate and become members of the club. It is estimated that 3 million fireflies, often called Lightning Bugs, are urgently needed for Medical and Scientific Research during the coming year.

In addition to helping Medical Science, participants will receive large cash payments this year before for Live Fireflies delivered to a specified Receiving Station. Details on how to catch Fireflies and the amounts paid for them may be obtained by phoning Sigma Pi Phi Scientists Club.

DON'T BE SKINNY

Water-on

Catching Fireflies is a simple matter; a net is helpful and one may be made at home quite inexpensively by attaching any fine mesh cloth to a bent coat hanger. Nets are also available from the Club.

Fireflies hover near the ground about one hour, day dark, which makes this the ideal time for catching them. A firefly is noted by its twinkling tail section, which gives a pale yellow.

After catching the Fireflies, they may be transferred to a clean dry jar and a lid applied.

Receiving Stations are located throughout the Greater St. Louis area, where Fireflies may be "picked up." For the location of a Receiving Station in your area, please call: Filopost 2-8888.

Fireflies are clean insects and are not known to carry germs or cause any disease.

Boyd Re-Elected Potentate Of Medinah Temple No. 39

John F. Boyd was re-elected by Medinah Temple No. 39, Prince Hall Shriners, during the fraternal organization's annual election meeting, Sunday, June 8, and will serve another year as Potentate of the group.

Boyd, who headed the group while the Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, held their annual Imperial Council session here, was commended for accomplishments made during his tenure in office. Much credit for the success of the convention, which has been declared the "greatest in the history of the organization," by the Imperial Potentate Thomas P. Ford and others, has been attributed to the outstanding leadership of Boyd.

Others elected at the meeting were: Rudolph Allen, Chief of Labor; James Barker, Assistant Master; Eugene Taylor, High Priest and Prophet; Gordon Bailey, Oriental Order; Sterling Cooper, treasurer and Ernest T.

Ford, recorder.

The election was conducted by Andrew Young, Imperial Deputy of the Order of St. Louis. Eugene Gentry is the Imperial Deputy of the Order of Missouri in East St. Louis.

And that is so rare as a day in June,
Then, if ever, come perfect days;
Then, indeed, this earth if it be in tune,
And over it softly we warm our days;
Whether we look or whether we listen,
We hear life's music, we see it gladden
Loud!

WIFE AND THREE
Part of our household is on an extended trip to the East. Ann and Daddy's major mission was to attend the Fifth-City Renaissance at Springfield, Massachusetts, but they are taking in other spots as they go leisurely along by train. They were the houseguests of Ted and Cynthia Holloway in Cleveland, Ohio. Ed, Industrial Arts Teacher, is very active in education circles in the city, state, and national NEA. He is chairman of the Ohio Education Association Legislative Support Committee, and on the Executive Committee of the North Eastern Ohio Teachers Association, Cynthia, whom Daddy describes as a wonderful hostess, is an elementary school teacher. Quoting a portion of his letter, he writes: "Ed and Cynthia arrived (home from work) by 5:30 p.m. We were ready so, we started to see the properties in Cleveland. Believe me, there are beautiful areas here, particularly Shaker Heights. We stopped at Frandella Garrett (as relation) Henderson, Mary Waples Ford came there and we chatted, stopped in Glenside (Hosmer) Carmack - New husband, not sure of name, stopped at Payson as Ann could see Dede Bates old friend, stopped at parents of Cynthia, too. More sightseeing, then to supper at the Brown Derby Steak House, then home. We stayed up until 1 a.m. viewing slides taken at Vanita's home. Alice Hurst, the doctor in the office in New York, called in. Seattle, Capetown, Pittsburgh. The pictures were beautiful and interesting. Mrs. Green, now Mrs. James called this a.h. (lived on Garfield next to Pruitt). She will have her nephew J.R. Richardson call now - he was on my bookshelf last summer." So many of you have known Daddy in his travels... as you can see, he's doing great! Thanks love!

There were some mighty proud moments for Mom and Dad, Uncle and Aunt, godparents, and friends on Sunday afternoon when Floretta Howard's Card of Expression held its annual graduation ceremony. It was something to see the offspring of so many former classmates, co-workers, and friends deliver their bits of poetry and literature, sing and dance, and march stately-like in procession. Dominick Jones, Maurice Williams, and James Wilson Jr. were the commentators. And they were assisted by the youngest pupil, Peter, who was the Victim of Gail Turner, of the James Hurst, the Gordon Turners, the Keith Picketts, the Arthur Townsends, the John Jones, the Wallace Dennises, the James Davies, and the James Hollingsworths - to mention but a few of the participants. Pamela Denise Jones was the Queen of the School of the School-to-Beign until June, 1966. John Peter Wheeler, the Queen of the Primary Class of 1965 was Kim Winton Bates.

Ran into Dorothy (Felds) Chambers shopping for clothes since her bag, sent by Railway Express, had not arrived yet from Dallas. Dorothy, her husband, Herbert, and two daughters are spending a couple of weeks visiting her parents here. You may have noticed her in last month's EBONY magazine as one of the best-dressed women named in their annual survey of this country.

Elizabeth Garlington is off this week for a Family Therapy Workshop at the Academy of Medicine in New York. After the final session on Saturday, she'll start on a sabbatical of the theater where she hopes to get a real fill of plays before returning to our town.

We didn't get by the Parrier Harris Home Day, held Sunday at the home on the grounds, but did get to see the parade. All occasion to go to the Home's earlier in the week and was struck by the bright, cheerful and airy surroundings provided for some of our senior citizens. Met B. W. Goodwin, Executive Director, outside and he has great plans for expanding the operations.

Support is being raised for the Negro American Youth Center, Open House at their newly modernized Funeral Home, West, at 1903 N. Union Blvd. You can attend between the hours of 11 and 8 p.m. The Howard University Commencement Exercises was a big day. No less than President Lyndon B. Johnson was the speaker and you have probably read, excerpts of his fine speech while at that time. Urmia Starford went to attend the 20th Reunion of her class at Howard University Medical School and brought back Helen from Redford Jackson, radiologist who is now here but, however, he makes his home in Richmond, Virginia. Got a postcard from "Smokie" Robinson, who was a part of a host of proud folks who saw Wayman "Skipper" Smith Jr. receive his law degree. (We understand he will be working soon with a very fine New York law firm). Besides his man and pop, who were from here, there were two "Chack" Hancock and his family, Harry and Sadie Mosby, Donald Bennett, and Ollie Davenport, all you can well imagine. When all those St. Louisans got together, it was a real bang!

ENTERTAINING
Certainly the most unique place for a society initiation was the setting of a Saturday when ten AKA members "crossed the burning sands" on the Mississippi River aboard the River Queen, Harriet White, ladies of Delta Delta Chapter, led the ritual that made neophytes of Elizabeth Garrett, Joceyln James, Jean Gillespie, Alyce Russell, Ruth Overly, LeVern Rhodes, Arlene Randall, Jo Ann Coleman, Elton Smith, and Deborah Lowe. Following the ceremony, members of Gamma Omega Chapter joined in saluting them as special guests at a joint undergraduate-graduate luncheon on the top deck of the, maternally restored boat. Bessie Mae Martin Waring introduced some of the special guests and AKA leaders. AKA leaders had called on other officers, committee members to stand and take a bow. Hancock (Dyan) Powell did the grace, after which the over two hundred gathered there could drive into a busy and attractive luncheon place. After this was over, the ladies were ready to go back and later to their cars (Virginia Brown, December ready to go to the "Operations Department" for St. Louis City and County make a call for volunteers to work in this eight week program. (The call is for men and women too). Later, a large majority of those present boarded St-Nato Buses for a tour (and it's really an eye-opener if you haven't been around) of the river from New Orleans and the expansion of housing in the Mississippi River valley.

Dr. Rula, Fortson, who holds office New York and is a professor at Brooklyn College, was to leave behind workbooks as the houseguest of Elizabeth Garlington. She had just completed a Vanita Hurst and her workshop at the University of Minnesota at Columbia and was on her way to attend another one at the University of Minnesota, located at Kansas City. She was treated and hosted by the Thomas Stappes, Thomas Lewis, Martin Waring, and her husband and hopes to be back in St. Louis around the next holiday. Friday night, the Mayan Room of the Bol-A-Ball Road was trans-

Among the many graduates in the St. Louis community this month is a mother-daughter combination! Dr. Freda Witherspoon and Miss Vanita Carole Witherspoon, wife and daughter respectively of Robert L. Witherspoon, prominent practicing attorney and recent Argus awards recipient for his outstanding service to the community.

Dr. Witherspoon was awarded her Ph.D. degree June 5, at Saint Louis University commencement exercises, while Vanita was graduated June 16, at the new Northwest High School, where she was one of few pupils on the "Right to go on" list throughout her senior year.

Vanita, St. Louis Argus teen columnist for the past three years, has been in the track 1A "gifted" group since fifth grade. She will formally make her debut to society, June 25, but has, for some time, been active in community affairs. She has served as secretary of the Youth Council NAACP, treasurer of Junior Employment and Loan Corporation, Wheatley Branch YWCA, Teen Queen, Queen of Floretta Howard School of Expression, and is currently program and project chairman of the Junior Service Guild—The Anna Malone Children's Home.

Recently, she served as teen chairman of the March of Dimes drive with her West Side Youth Group leading all teen group solicitations, throughout the city. She is also active in Jack and Jill and the Little Women's Club.

An active participant in her church's youth activities where her mother serves as youth director, she is a member of the Youth Celestial Trio, Assistant Junior director of the Junior

She is Associate General Counsel, St. Louis (Missouri) Housing and Land Clearance Authorities.

She is a member of the Missouri Association of Social Workers, the Missouri Historical Society, the American Bar Association and the Lawyers Association of St. Louis.

Attorney Freeman has been admitted to practice in Federal and State Courts of Missouri and the United States Supreme Court. He is a member of the Executive Committee of the National Council of Negro Women, the NAACP, YWCA, and the Saint Louis Civil Liberties Committee.

Attorney Freeman attended Hampton Institute and received the LL.B. degree from Howard U.

He was a formal dance given by the popular men's club. The St. Louis Argus, earlier in the week. Attorney and Mrs. Curtis C. Crawford, uncle and aunt of Darryl Andrew Crawford, gave an elegant graduation party for her and her guests following the commencement exercises.

She was married by the Rev. Dr. J. Edgar Smith, Jr. of the June 1968 class at Lincoln Senior High School of East St. Louis, Illinois, 1968 class at Lincoln Senior High School of East St. Louis, Illinois.

It was like a family reunion when Rose Bowers, Margaret Piper, Evelyn Whitlock, Joyce Woodson, Betty Sue Kennedy, Mildred (forgot her last name) and Mary Rupp, and your reporter gathered in that and there at Helen Hutton's on Sunday evening. The occasion was to see Peggy (McCallin) Smith and her husband, Ronald and their three children who moved through St. Louis from Washington, D.C. to their new assignment in Oregon, California. Peggy, who is as petite and demure as was always remembered her, says that who is as petite and demure as was always remembered her, says that brought along the Atlas to show as the position of the Little town nestled in the hills, surrounded by mountains and nearby snow and dunes in the same vicinity. Her husband, who is at the Devotion House of the observation-Jefferson Hotel. Recreation may be made with Mrs. Mada Washington, 1141 Bell. The dance is at 8:00 p.m.

FRIDAY, JUNE 15—The first Little Symphony Concert (under the baton of the Washington University Quadrangle). The 5:45 p.m. session concert will feature Pianist Ralph Votapek in Mozart's Concerto No. 22. Stanley Chaplin is the conductor.

FRIDAY, JUNE 15—Luther Memorial Methodist Church will hold its Fourth Annual Devotional Conference in the Gold Room of the observation-Jefferson Hotel. Devotional may be made with Mrs. Mada Washington, 1141 Bell. The dance is at 8:00 p.m.

THURSDAY, JULY 18—The 1st Jazz Mass presented a Cruise with the St. Louis Argus, earlier in the week. Attorney and Mrs. Curtis C. Crawford, uncle and aunt of Darryl Andrew Crawford, gave an elegant graduation party for her and her guests following the commencement exercises.

MISS BOWDEN

Miss Shirley Jean Bowden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Bowden, 908 Arlington Ave., St. Louis, Mo., was among the more than 1,000 graduates in the June 5th class at the University of Missouri where she received the Bachelor of Science Degree in Education.

While attending the university, she was active in the Student Union Forum, Spanish Club, the Student National Education Association, tutor in Spanish for some of the football Tigers, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Sweetheart and charter member of the Delta Tau Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Miss Bowden has been offered positions in the Columbia, Missouri and St. Louis public school systems for the 1968-1969 school year.

Chate and supervisor of the speech and dramatics guild. During the past summer, she has attended Lewis and Clark Summer Institute for the Academically Talented and Laidie-Chow, Teen Summer Institute. This summer she will study in a pre-college workshop at Washington U. Next September she plans to matriculate in pre-law at FDU U. Her only brother, Robert Jr., is a pre-law student at Northwest Missouri State College at Kirksville, Missouri.

Unlike the majority of pursuers of a doctorate degree, Dr. Witherspoon has remained active in community life throughout her various stages of study and preparation of her dissertation. None of her religious, social or civic activities were diminished in the pursuit of excellence in graduate studies.

Besides being the distinction of several "firsts", she is currently on numerous boards and active in leadership roles of many organizations. Her doctoral thesis, "A Descriptive Study of Selected Characteristics of Juvenile Offenders in St. Louis Secondary Schools Who Became Dropouts." Holder of a Master's degree in social work and Master's degree in Guidance from Washington University where she is a member of Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society. Dr. Witherspoon's doctoral major was the Guidance and Counseling, with a minor in Human Relations. Completing her regular employment as a Guidance Counselor at Northwest High School this month, she will serve on the Human Relations faculty this summer at St. Louis University.

Most about the baker for the cake and arrangements for the church. There is the choice to make concerning who will play the organ. There is always confusion about who the best man will be, because no one wants to hurt anyone's feelings.

The bride-to-be has to select bridesmaids and flower girls. She also has to find something old and something new. She has to borrow something and wear something blue.

All these things lead up to the big moment. But I think what really gives the young lady the greatest thrill about her wedding is when she sees the bride and groom. There are all kinds of styles to choose from, however, most wedding gowns are not fit just right and there are alterations to be made—adding more expense.

If you saw, I know a sure way that bride-to-be can look smart for a small investment. You can make your own gown and it will fit perfectly.

In case you are artistic, you may even design it yourself. If you make your own gown, you can have as much lace or as long a train or veil as you want. You can put sequins and jewels where you desire. You can have your choice of patterns from the latest styles.

The empire waist is very stylish now, and is also easy to sew. You can have a choice of sleeve lengths—elbow, short, or long. My advice is to choose one that will ADD to your gown and you.

Some important things to consider when sewing are: not have a good sewing machine—one of the newer models that has a variety of stitches to make sewing more fun. Secondly, use material that is of good quality and that is reasonable. Last, by all means use a pattern style that is becoming to you.

Start deciding now on what kind of wedding gown you'll wear and then MAKE it. Sewing is both fun and thrifty, but you won't find out until you try. So young bride-to-be, let go of your creative abilities and sew! There is one thing sure, your gown can

News Pot Pourri

By Oznathylee

SINCE JUNE 18 is the big wedding month, newweds may be interested in the following facts: One out of ten of the new brides may be the main character during married life—because of divorce or due to death or disability of her husband. Three out of ten of the new grooms will have to take over running the house and raising the kids.

TO MAKE summer housekeeping a little bit easier: Brush the outside of cook-out pans with thick soapuds before putting them over the fire. Soap will come off easily when you wash them afterward. Here's the other hint: Many roll-on deodorant bottles have removable tops, so you can fill an empty one with a liquid laundry detergent. Instead of rubbing knuckles sore every washing, simply roll some detergent on a soiled spot. Then wash the item as usual.

THAT ADORABLE NEW BABY is going to cost you and your husband a bundle of money by the time he's 18. A recent report in "Children's Times" estimates that this junior's upkeep will run about $12,000 for a family with a modest standard of living; around $24,000 for a comfortably well-to-do family; and more for wealthy parents.

And these figures do not include the cost of college. Here is a breakdown of some of the expenses of child-raising: Being born, including doctor and hospital: $200-$600. Minor illnesses: $1,000. Double or triple that amount if surgery or braces are needed.

Food: (including occasional meals for friends) $10,000; $300 less for girls. Clothing: $2,000; higher for a girl. Add the cost of incidental: haircuts, permanent, toys, entertainment, vacations, music and other things. Sunday school.

IF YOU HAVE family keys at your house . . . keys to the cellar or garage that everyone uses . . . they probably always seem to get misplaced just when you need them most. Here's a neat trick to keep keys handy. Make a large key-holder by bending a metal coat hanger into a circle, with a key ring this side, even your husband can't put them in his pocket, and you can hang the ring in a convenient place somewhere in the house.

IT'S BEST to throw frozen chicken into the refrigerator, say food experts at the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Allow 1 to 1½ days for a whole bird, 4 pounds or more.

TO WHITEN IMPROPERLY bleached synthetic materials, wash them for several hours in overnight in a solution of two quarts water, one-third cup salt and three-fourth cup white vinegar. Repeat if necessary or follow by a thorough soaking in hling water.

TO MOW OR NOT TO MOW is never the question. Rather, it's how high to mow and how often. According to turf experts, you should never take off more than a third of the grass leaf area at one time. A once-a-week mowing ought to keep things under control except perhaps in the early spring and early fall, which are extremely fast growing periods.

But should you be too busy or be off on a vacation and find a virtual hayfield when you get back . . . remember that you give the grass a rest for a couple of days, then take off another third. Repeat until you've got your lawn back to normal.

What's normal depends on what type of grass you have.

INSTEAD OF A STANDARD towel bar to your bathroom, consider a rustic rope, a bamboo pole, or a nylon rope. Bathroom hampers come in straw, metal and plastic. They're shaped to suit any space available.

CARDINAL RULE in using an automatic clothes dryer is "avoid over-drying," says a leading home economist. Drying clothes results in wrinkling, brittleness, heavier fading and even shrinkage. Remember that all fabrics have a natural moisture content and over-drying will remove this moisture. To best clothes for dryers, always take them out into the air, shake it and fold it. Clothes dried in the damp heat of the dryer always feel damper than they really are.

RESEARCHERS at the Oklahoma Agricultural Experiment Station have found a new disease in dogs. It is called Ehrlichiosis. The disease, never previously known to exist in the United States, produces a distemper-like condition accompanied by anemia. Dogs become weak and frequently the illness is fatal. The disease is not, however, infectious to man.

Teacher Retires After 35 Years

Mrs. Cosetta K. Seale, 4450 Cole Hillside Ave., will retire as teacher after being active in the field of education for thirty-five years. Her services have been varied, including stints in Topeka, Kansas; Missouri and Lovely, Ill., where she was an elementary supervisor. At Bethune-Cookman College at Daytona Beach, Fla., Mrs. Seale was a consultant in charge of teacher trainees. She worked in close cooperation with its founders, Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune. She also spent four summers as teacher-trainer classes at Wilberforce, O. These assignments provided her with a rich and diversified experience, which she has unhesitatingly shared with others.

Mrs. Seale's last years of dedicated teaching have been spent here. She has been in the special schools for the past 15 years, and has also taught adults in public and private classes.

In the words of Mr. Kottmeyer, "Cosetta K. Seale has rendered loyal, faithful and excellent service to the Board of Education, the students and the community to general."

Teachers of the city join with the Peabody faculty in wishing for her a long and happy retirement with her daughter, sociology and seven lovely grandchildren. She will return to them and her home, 2415 Tenth Street, Kansas City, Kan., on Wednesday, June 30.

DO YOU HAVE A NEIGHBOR OR RELATIVES WHOM YOU WISH TO AGGRAVATE?

There are several things you could do, first off you could get a new CADILLAC, that is sure to turn them green with envy as it sits in your drive way.

But, here is a more unique way, spend several thousand dollars on new and exquisite furnishings and furniture.

After all, it lasts for literally a lifetime and a car only has status for several years.

You'll be amazed at how envious your friends and relatives will be. Many a wife of a successful businessman has told me, "Mr. Le Mons, you just wouldn't believe how I've driven my sister-in-law green with envy since you sold my home—and what's more, my children and husband are proud of our home—it's like a second honeymoon."

Haven't you ever thought of it that way? You spend most of your time in your home. Good furniture does last and last. Certainly the least expensive car you can buy is several thousand dollars and it's never give you the pure pleasure that your own estate can.

Please call me, I want to help you make your friends jealous. Vang Jackson.

300 Government Jobs Here

P. A. Pollock, Chairman of the Federal Executive Board has announced that the 50 federal agencies having offices in the St. Louis area will employ in excess of 300 young people in new-created summer work positions.

This will be a part of the local action on President Johnson's Youth Opportunity Campaign to provide needed summer employment for you between the ages of 16 and 22. According to Pollock, over 300 summer workers are already on the job or soon will be.

The entire number will be working before the end of June. The type of work experience and job training encompasses practically every field of work suitable for young people.

NEED INDUSTRY

Applicants for summer work in the federal agencies are recruited by the newly-established Youth Opportunity Center, 3617 Olive Street. According to Charles DeLaney, Metropolitan Area Manager for the Missouri Division of Employment, Security which operates the Center, there is a tremendous need for participation in the President's campaign by private enterprise. Summer workers provide employers with exceptional opportunities to interest young people in specific fields of work and also relieve the additional work load on permanent employees during the vacation period.

Special appeals are being made to the business and civic leaders of the community to cooperate in every way possible to encourage the hiring of summer workers by private enterprise. Summer workers provide employers with exceptional opportunities to interest young people in specific fields of work and also relieve the additional work load on permanent employees during the vacation period.

The Youth Opportunity Center is open Monday through Friday from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. to serve both applicants and employers. Employers may telephone their job order by calling FR-130212.

Teachers Union Asks School

Board For Financial Report

The St. Louis Teachers Union has asked the Board of Education to disclose what it considers to be the real financial needs of the schools. In addition, the Union asked the board to announce its figures on teachers salaries and class sizes.

Ralph Kim, president of the Teachers Union, said "we have heard much about the just-passed increase being a 'rock-bottom' figure designed to keep our school system alive. We want to know how that the political campaign for jobs is over, what figures are necessary for quality education. This includes a professional teacher salary (not merely coming close to an average figure) a teachable class size (not merely an unworkable one), and other items of professional concern."

"Kira continued: "The special committee originated by Mayor A. J. Cerdas pointed out that the board should have asked for more than 25¢. They also included the critical areas of salaries not yet fulfilled. We want to know how much money will be needed to solve these problems."

The Teachers Union also indicated that it is relatively simple for the Board of Education to ask for the property tax method of financing its share of a sales tax or an income tax, but that it would be difficult to meet such legislation, the citizens really believe in supporting the school system."

Kim pointed out that "the face of the opposition shown toward the cost tax increase, strong opposition to any new kind of tax by 'tax-haters' is guaranteed. The property tax is becoming increasingly obnoxious and other systems are necessary. But tax money comes from tax-payers, no matter what the system. Thus, it becomes vital that the public acknowledge the necessity for school support because it wants and demands good schools and this age of rapidly changing society."

Job Workshop To Be Sponsored By YWCA, I-SE Service

LYNDON B. JOHNSON accepts the applause of Howard University President James M. Nabrit, Jr. following his commencement address at Howard last Friday. In his remarks Mr. Johnson announced that he would call a conference of Negro leaders, government officials, and other experts next fall for the purpose of bringing about the full realization of civil rights by all Americans. During the exercises President Nabrit conferred an honorary Doctor of Laws degree upon Mr. Johnson. Other honorary degrees went to Roy Wilkins of the NAACP, Tuskegee, Ala. educator and civic leader Charles G. Gombos, and Michael M. Davis, pioneer in American national care economics. A crowd of some 15,000, including 928 graduates, was on hand for the exercises.

Discuss Power Complete Work At The Cathedral

Bodies of the dangers involved in the use of power mowers are discussed in a new film which can be borrowed without charge from the St. Louis City-County Health Commissioner and Dr. J. Earl Smith, City Health Director, announced this week.

The film, entitled "A Moving Lesson For Charles," illustrates the do's and don'ts of using power mowers and the types of situations which lead in an accident, said.

The film is 16 mm. in color, and about 5 minutes in length. Dr. Keller and Dr. Smith noted that the film is excellent for showing to youth groups with be moved by the institutions to help construct campus buildings and renovate obsolete structures.

A part of the allocation will also be used in strengthening basic curriculum and supplement enrichment funds for faculty expansion and scholarship aid.

To date, the fund has received and distributed $19 million in unrestricted capital gifts obtained from the development campaign—the $2 million distributed today and $17 million in 1964. One-third of this total sum came from a Ford Foundation matching grant, and two-thirds from contributor payments on pledges obtained during the campaign year.

Science Grant For Teachers At W. U.

The National Science Foundation has granted $4,450 to Washington University for the training of 25 secondary school teachers in the area of earth science.

An In-Service Institute, consisting of a two-semester course in earth science, will be offered to teachers of general science or earth sciences in grades 7 through 12. Aid to the participants in includes full remission of tuition and a travel allowance.

Selection of the 25 participants will be made on the basis of need for the training and general scholastic aptitude. At least one year of successful teaching is required. Applications for the institute, which will be held during the academic year 1965-66, must be submitted by July 15.

Dr. James Brice, director of the institute, said that emphasis in the course will be placed on laboratory work, because "the teachers' confidence in handling the subject matter of earth science is greatly increased by a familiarity with actual materials and processes."

Classes will be held twice weekly by cutting across. In addition, industrial organizations, civic and religious groups, or any other group with members who use power mowers, should schedule the film for showing at one of their meetings, they said.

Persons wishing to borrow this film should call the St. Louis County Health Department at PA. 6-1100, Extension 207.

Dr. Butler points out that a healthy adult, from the ages of 18 through 55, can donate a pint of blood just as easily in the summer months as at any other time of the year. He also added that the need for blood is just as constant during July and August as at any other month and in fact, there is even a greater demand due to the increased amount of highway traffic accidents during the summer months. He said that with thousands of children home from school, many will be the victims of accidents necessitating blood transfusion.

A Shocking Incident

The St. Louis Police Department should come forth immediately with a clear, concise explanation as to just why it was necessary for a uniformed officer to shoot and kill a young suspect fleeing from custody. The suspect was shackled—his arms twisted behind his back and his wrists handcuffed. Police Officer Raymond Bennett killed the youth with a bullet in the back of the head. The dead youth, Melvin Cravens, had been arrested as a suspect in the burglary of a automobile shop on North Grand. He had no weapon on his person when arrested, nor did he offer any resistance when first arrested—according to actual police reports.

Yet, on reaching the police district station, the police officers who had the 17-year-old in custody now solemnly declare that their prisoner suddenly turned ferocious. Their prisoner, despite his rigidly shackled condition, suddenly sought to flee from custody. The police version is well nigh incredible.

In the vestibule, so to speak, of a police district station, where there is no way for fellow police officers on hand to lend assistance, a prisoner seeks to escape. He presented such a danger, this 17-year-old boy, that he had to be killed?

The police officers accompanying the prisoner suddenly failed to seek help or make a serious effort to apprehend their fleeing suspect. It certainly shouldn't have presented too much of a problem to catch a fleeing prisoner, with his hands shackled behind his back.

But instead of resorting to a bit of fancy footwork, or even to seek the help of other officers—it seems as if the policemen involved in this shameful episode took the easier and deadlier way out.

Patrolman Rommel pulled out his pistol—shackles be damned—and let loose a shot that killed the prisoner.

This is a nasty... dirty... sordid case. The entire episode stinks to high heaven. The people are restless. Reports of crowds creating tension-packed situations with policemen are rapidly increasing. The newspaper has always been one of the prime advocates of law and order. Knowing full well the difficult job facing our policemen, we have also usually preached strict obedience to a policeman's order.

But—in this case, a policeman, sworn to uphold law and order and protect human lives, stoops to kill a shackled prisoner.

We say No, Hell No! Someone in the St. Louis Police Department must come up with a real, competent investigation as to just why a police officer found it necessary to rely on unarmed, shackled prisoner.

The infamous New York City riots started over a somewhat similar event, which also found a youth shot down. But that lad was not handcuffed. Nor were there other policemen within clinking distance to lend immediate assistance.

This odious case presents a much more vivid example of pure, unadulterated quick-trigger police shooting.

This we cannot have.

Let The Reds Beware

This newspaper has received word that the Communist Party is planning to organize the young people in St. Louis. Understand, however, we definitely cannot vouch for the full-proof accuracy of this information.

But with news of this type, it is always best to erect certain safeguards in order to insure that the Reds do not get a chance to infiltrate among the young people here. Some of those safeguards, of course, we will keep close to our vest as secrets of the trade.

There is one safeguard, however, that we want all sundry to know. It has to do with the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs. The FBI and more specifically, J. Edgar Hoover, have vouchsafed some pretty startling information about the DuBois Clubs. The FBI also has certain records, statistics and information to support their charges that the DuBois Clubs are Communist-fronted.

This newspaper has become somewhat disenchanted with J. Edgar Hoover, particularly after he called Rev. Martin Luther King, the Southern Methodist Liar. J. Edgar Hoover thus joins another cantankerous old fogey, Harry Truman in seeming to suffer from an acute form of diarrhea of the mouth. His needs to be let out to pasture, that we have no doubt.

But when certain information indicates that the Communists have been playing footsie with the DuBois Clubs, then we here at the ARGUS have no alternative. As far as we are concerned, the DuBois Clubs are persona non grata in the Negro Community. We shall also strive mightily to make as many as possible aware of their purported intent. To some, this might sound like a clear-cut case of guilt by association. We, of course, heartily disagree. It is just that America is OUR Country, the only one we know; the only one we love. With all its faults, it still is a babe of a night better, than any Communist Country.

Traditionally, the Negro Citizen has been among the most loyal and most patriotic of any other ethnic group in this country's history. Which is as it should be. We intend to help maintain that ratio.

Besides, with all the pressure exerted on us because of the color of our skins, it is hardly feasible to burn to another hated color—red—in our philosophy.

So down with the DuBois Clubs, in St. Louis and elsewhere.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY:

'The Next Stage'

Reprinted from the CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

For several years, experts on the American racial situation have stated that passage of civil rights legislation would not in itself end racial tension. They declare that the ability to vote, to use public accommodations, and to go to integrated schools would not on its own, bring about sufficiently great improvement in the Negro's condition to terminate the long, hot summer of his discontent.

President Johnson has made it clear that he accepts these findings and that steps must be taken to improve the Negro's economic position now that the civil-rights fight is largely won. In his strongly worded address at Howard University, he referred to this further effort as the "next and more profound stage" of the battle on the Negro's behalf. So far as can be gathered, the President, while wisely stressing that the Negro will be called upon to rely first of all on his own efforts, also believes that special help must be given the Negro to make up for the legacy of the past.

In the end, however, this advance, unlike the passage of civil-rights laws, cannot come from the government. It must come from national realization that the highest ideals of Christianity and of the foundation of the United States are premised upon the inalienable rights and unlimited ability of the individual man and woman. This realization, and there is ample evidence that it is broadening daily—will open a full path of progress to the Negro.

Civic Duty

To the Editor:

In order to help make our community beautiful, we will have to start in our own back yards. It is our duty to live up to the requirements to be cooperative with our neighbor, to comply with rules and regulations of our organization, show respectability to our chairman and his or her committee. Also, attend the meetings as regular as possible so you will be in the "know" of what is happening in and around your community.

It is the duty of every resident to get acquainted with his next-door neighbor and try to learn of their mode of living; of course, in a very tactful manner. It is the duty of every chairman and his committee to be so organized that you can have every prospective new resident investigated before being accepted into your community.

It is the duty of every resident to keep his property beautiful and clean inside and outside. Next, we MUST live by the Golden Rule. "Do Unto Others as We Would Have Them Do Unto Us."

Friends, know your neighbors. If he needs assistance in any way, be willing to lend a helping hand. If there is illness or distress, don't hesitate to help in any way that you can.

We deeply appreciate your fine article about the Tuberculosis and Health Society which appeared in the recent issue of the Argus. It was most complimentary.

Actually, it is the people of St. Louis who make our health programs successful as they give generously of their time and money. Especially valuable is the news agency which follows the year-round struggle to the tuberculosis testing, X-ray and campaign mailing program.

The Argus has always been most generous, and we are grateful.

Old Folks At Home!

FRANK HARRIS, 1965

Faith of our fathers living still, in spite of dangers, fears, and sorrows... This is the integrity faith and spirit of the great women leaders who back in 1860 conceived the idea of a home for our elderly citizens.

The same boldness and undaunted courage is evidenced in the outstanding leadership provided by present administration, E. W. Goodwin and president, Fulton E. Cuthin. Administrator Goodwin, a former American Woodmen executive, has guided the home since its tenure, to unparalleled heights of progress, growth and development.

The Fetter Harris Home for the aged, (one of a few of its kind for Negroes in the United States), 1816 Page boulevard, has more than 40 distinguished citizens now serving on its board of directors. Mrs. Bertha B. Burton and Mr. Alvin Lyons are vice presidents. Miss Bertha Carter serves as recording secretary; Mrs. Jessie Short, corresponding secretary; Mr. John D. Buckner, treasurer and Reverend William Conn, pastor of First Baptist Church, chairman.

We learned in a documentary historical paper on the home, that the women founders of the home were members of what was then, in 1868 and 1869, known as the Wednesday Afternoon Sewing Club. These women had a vision... a vision aimed at meeting the dire need of a special home which would provide institutional care for aged Negro citizens. ... At that time the City Infirmary was the only St. Louis area long-term care facility receiving citizens regardless of economic status.

With a meager beginning in a frame house South of St. Louis, the "Old Folks Home"—which many people still call Fetter Harris today—enlisted wide community support to make the inspired mission of its founders a success.

The first "Old Folks Home Day" noted the marked occasion when the home was publicly opened as a result of the cooperation of donations of time, skills, and money from carpenters, plasterers, painters, churches, fraternal groups, civic clubs and interested individuals.

An annual celebration with enthusiastic support of the St. Louis community has been held ever since. ... Just this past Sunday, the home experienced one of its most glorious celebrations with the traditional parade, the parade of the color guard, and the presentation of the home's 100th anniversary.

The Sewing Club, which we mentioned earlier, became the "Old Folks Home Board" from which was evolved the present Board of Directors.

The name of the Home was changed to the "Fetter Harris Home for the Aged" in honor of the first president and organizer of the original group.

For more than 100 years the Fetter Harris Home has been an integral part of the community in serving the aged citizens of our community. ... Its doors are always open to the public.

Offering the best in therapeutic, recreational and rehabilitation care of the aged and aging, the home, which is the heart of the aged, operates on a budget of $50-60 thousand annually. Individual contributions are accepted, and are tax deductible.

In a recent letter to the public, board president, Fulton E. Cuthin stated, "We extend gratitude to the hundreds of our friends whose volunteer services have helped make the lives of our residents brighter. ... Our most pressing concern is future development in view of the growing premonition of aged persons and the demand on our resources for placement of the aged. The aged possess physical conditions which challenge the very nature of our services since requests for skilled nursing services, chronic, infirm or long-term illness imply a complex of hospital care, nursing home care, and community facilities to meet the community need of the future."

"We solicit your support," he said.

We congratulate the board and staff of the Fetter Harris Home for all that has been accomplished at the institution in behalf of our aging citizens ... from 1868 to 1968.

Family Festival

To the Editor:

We would appreciate your printing the following article in your publication the week of June 21:

"On Sunday, June 27, Our Lady's Relief House, Warrenton, Mo., is having its annual Family Festival. Ham and beef dinners will be served from 12 noon until 2 p.m. and there will be rides for the children and entertainment for all."

Thank you for your cooperation.

Anyone who had ever lived in Eastwren Ohio could have told them "outlaw agitator" that it would have been better had they stayed in bed.

The town of Lebanon is in Warren county, not too far from Dayton, where I was born and lived as a youth. As a youngster of eight or nine I can remember the Klan vividly. Mr. parents took my sister and me to a farm near Lebanon for a vacation, but mostly so we could see what life was like in the rural areas outside the big cities like Dayton, Springfield, and Middletown, Ohio.

My most vivid memory was that every night several of the farmers would arrive on the farm to see the "Klansmen" of the Klan. They would be in a lot of head-bush talk about the "Klansmen" and the "Klan" (vice-presidents) and the "Klan" (the Klan). We would be asked what it was all about, but the farmers with and the Klansmen said we would be asked off to bed in the morning.

I remember that the Klan was very active in the area. We would be asked what it was all about, but the farmers with and the Klansmen said we would be asked off to bed in the morning.

"You better stop sending your Klansmen, kid," he answered. "My town told you not to ask questions and you better stop asking. We're tired of seeing and hearing about it to be trouble for anybody who asks questions."

This was something of a shock, but by the time of the next year our vacation was over and I had pretty much gotten over the Klan. I remember that the Klan was very active in the area.

By this time the Klansmen were becoming bolder. They had learned some, I suppose, from Klan, Ohio, which they said they had learned from the Klan. They were very active in the area.

Who Will Be The Future Weeks' Personality?

SHOWS OF SHOWS HIGHLIGHTS FATHER'S DAY: ST. LOUISANS will be thrilled and honored with the FRANK FINNEY JAZZ FESTIVAL, at the Kiel Open House Sunday, June 20th, 2 p.m. The spectacular revue, featuring in person: Slim Gaillard, Davey Jr., Joey Bishop, Dean Martin, Timi Lopez, Joe E. Lewis, the Big Brothers, plus Count Basie's big roaring band and others. This is another presentation of the Finneys' "Jazz Council No. 12," Harold Oldham, president. The proceeds go for the Elvira House, a local organization founded by the late Father Charles D'Amico, S.J., for the sole purpose of aiding and rehabilitating convicts from penal institutions. Many other friends and the entire family are starting the morning's soiree celebration by attending the Marvin Gaye and the Motown Revue, at the Kiel Auditorium, Saturday, June 19th. . . . Others in the amazing rock 'n' roll show are: Four Tops, Contours, Willie Tyler & Lester, Martha & the Vandellas, Jr. The group Walker and Brenda Holloway, plus Choker Campbell's sensational band. Bill Murray and George "The 12" Logan will handle the emcees. . . . Don't spend all your hot-hot for the two shows mentioned events, the Union Memorial Methodist Church (Rev. John M. Egger, Jr., pastor), the Annual Culliton Dinner at the Sheraton-Jefferson hotel, Friday, June 25th is something to do about.

THIS WEEK'S PERSONALITY HONORS are honoring a few celebrities that highly respect their respective exploitations in the career have been very helpful along the way. . . . Kim January (Jazz) is the first of the "Noties" January 21, 1965 for her role in the Jerry Lewis film "THE UNDISCOVERED COUNTRY," starring Jerry Lewis, will kick-off a series of songwriting at the Ciro's Lounge, Los Angeles, California.

Her mother expressed happiness for her talented daughter and often speaks of Lorelei's local coaching she received from the writer. . . . Among Missouri University's newest "cheer leaders" is the first sister, Miss Jacqueline (Jackie) Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wright, Sr., who was cited in his column, December 22, 1964, when she (Jackie) was chosen "Queen" of the 18th Ward Democratic Organization, Fred Weathers, committeeman and Mrs. Willie Ann Barker, committeewoman. . . . Oliver Edward Nelson, one of the world's most eminent, euphorbia, molesters, arrangers and composers, shared the limelight with the Royal Sports Officials-Albie Howard and Everett Agnew in this column July 7, 1965. Nelson, who was visiting his hometown, was one of the speakers of the Royal Sports 25th Anniversary and Musical Award Concert featuring Nancy Wilson, held at the Chase-Park Plaza Sheraton Room, June 1965.

YOU CAN BE A WEEK'S PERSONALITY HONORER. . . . and probably make rapid progress in your respective endeavors, like others have.

Please fill the interview sheet and forward it to Chick Finney, Argus Theatrical Editor, 4566 Easton Avenue, St. Louis, Mo. 63113.

WHEN'S THE NEXT PROGRAM AT THE PEARLER MARINE HOME? . . . The 6th Annual Top Celebration of the Pearler Marine Home For The AGED, featuring some of the local most outstanding artists, last Sunday afternoon. Headliners were a swinging combo featuring lesser saxophonist and accordion star Jimmy Forrest, the Chiles Finney Trio, Mary's Blues, modulating Charlie Wilson, Jimmy Atkins, Maude Brown and Olivia Warren. Also KATZ's Helen Smith and the Spirit of Paradise Gospel Singers. . . . A gigantic street parade, with bands and drum-bugle corps demonstrations and other terrific exhibitions added luster to the day's activities. The evening of the evening, guest Mrs. Beulah Long, Miss Fernie Harris, Miss Rose for 1965, attended the annual event. The runner-up, Miss Linda Humphries, maid of honor, and the retiring queen, Miss Beulah Johnson, were also saluted. Commendations were bestowed upon all the participants, board members and contributors for their untiring efforts. Especially thanks to Lee Bennett, for his service and public address system, 418-124-Belleville Piano company, for the loan of the bandstand instrument.

ROYAL CROWN RELAXER: Midwest sales representative James Watson, was saluted by the Argus staff, upon his first visit here recently. Mr. Watson, noted beautician and consultant, who hails from Los Angeles, California, expressed confidence that his employer, the Y. Hitchcock and Company, manufacturers of Cometic, will be among the exhibitors at the Argus Show Service Exposition, at the Kiel Auditorium, September 18, 20, 21. Shown above are Miss Shipley-Nelson and Miss-Ella Roemer, of the Argus reception committee, listening to his interesting sales appeal.

Northern Baptist May Call Rev. William Scott As Its Pastor

Among the many thousands of ministers in the Greater St. Louis area, Mr. Scott is indeed fortunate to have such a high caliber, sincere and genuine Christian servant as the Rev. William A. Scott, Jr.

The youthful minister, son of Rev. William A. Scott, Sr., pastor of Newstead Baptist Church, has served for several years as assistant pastor of the Northern Baptist Church, Belt and Maple avenues.

Due to the death of the pastor, Rev. Felix Sheppard on May 28, Rev. Scott assumed the post of acting pastor with the likelihood of becoming one of the youngest pastors in the church's history should the church and its members voting authorities and boards approve or vote him in.

Very active in the church and giving unmeasured support to his ministry is his wife, the former Ora Mabry of St. Louis.

Rev. William A. Scott, Jr., was born in Lawrence, Kansas, in 1934. At this time his father was pastor of the Lawrence Baptist Church. Moving from there to Independence, Mo., where he joined the Second Baptist Church. Later the family moved to the big City of Kansas City, Mo., where the Rev. Scott, Sr., pastored the Pleasant Green Baptist Church.

Rev. William A. Scott, Jr.

Early Youth

In a recent biographical sketch, it was said of Rev. Scott: "Because of his early exposure to religious teaching and training at the age of eight, William, Jr., accepted Christ and was baptized. During the course of years William worked in various youth organizations of the church, serving as State Song Leader for the Missouri State Youth Division. The Scott family moved to St. Louis in September of 1949, when the elder Scott accepted the pastorate of the Southern Union Baptist Church. The younger Scott then served at Sumner High School from which he graduated in 1952.

After graduation, and because of strong spiritual convictions and a deep-seated concern for world conditions and the soul of his fellow man, William, Jr., felt a call to the ministry and entered the Western Baptist Seminary in September of 1952. ORDAINED IN 1955 In August of 1955, he received his ministerial credentials in a ceremony at the Pleasant Green Baptist Church.

In 1956 was the year that he married the former Ora Mabry. To this union were born two sons, presently 9 and 4 years of age. The whole family has been a tremendous help to him. Among his many ministerial functions, he has conducted numerous funerals for the E. S. Koonce Mortuary and has served with Chaplain Galtner of Homer Phillips Hospital.

He joined the Northern Baptist Church in August of 1955. In 1955 to 1957 was ordained by the late pastor Felix Sheppard, then quite ill, as his chief assistant. A position which he held until Pastor Sheppard's recent death. Employed as a postal carrier with the St. Louis Post Office Department, Rev. William A. Scott is its Minister of the Week.

heard shots and upon investigation, observed A. C. James, 39, of 3563 Kennedy bleeding about the face as he slumped from his car. The officers also found a gun in the man's possession and learned he had been shot by three men who were in a black truck.

While at the hospital with James, policemen encountered 3 men who came to the hospital suffering gunshot wounds. Upon further investigation, it was learned that they had been driven to the hospital in a black sedan and that the driver of the truck had dropped them off and left.

Ellis Funeral Home Achieves Founder's Dream

The Ellis Funeral Home had a very humble beginning and was founded by the late Rev. Ellis Jones in 1930. Rev. Ellis Jones was a firm believer in God and prayer. On the strength of his faith, he was able to overcome the many obstacles that he encountered in building the Ellis Funeral Home to make it a sound and solid business. In the years 1947 and 1948 he expanded the old site and made the present chapel. At the time of his death in 1949, the business had grown and his one desire was that those whom he left behind would continue in his footsteps and keep the business and expand it.

There were many who contributed to the success of the Ellis Funeral Home and out of the original staff, five of the faithful continue to be in service.

Mrs. Theora Brown Jones, who began her business career as a very young girl, serving as secretary, has kept the interest of the business at heart and made it a counterpart of her life. Mrs. Jones passed a year and a half ago. . . Lillian for your fashion accessory in keeping your beautiful all summer long wear a Fashion-Trans Way call that for demonstration. . . CH. L. 2599. . . 12 Presbyterian Laymen To Africa

NEW YORK, June 8—Twelve United Presbyterian laymen will leave their homes and jobs for two months this summer to be part of an inter-racial team for service in Africa.

Six of the men, ranging in age from 26 to 66, will form a team from West Africa. There they will help build a dormitory for students in agriculture near the College of Liberia in the Cameroons. The other six will head for East Africa where they will participate in intensive visits with African churches and complete a two-week work project in Kenya. Later, the two groups will meet for a six-day African-American youth conference at the Middle Remedial Foundation, Kiwira, Zambia.

BALTIMORE, MD.—Tolmado "Mama" Hill who has served Morgan State College and the CIAA for the past 12 years was guest of honor at the All-Sports Banquet held on the College campus.

The college gift, a desk and calendar, was presented to Coach Hill by Dr. Martin Luther King, president, other guests included one from Armed Forces, the Earl Hart, although retiring from coaching, will remain at the Baltimore college as assistant professor of health and physical education.

Dr. George P. Spaulding, guest speaker, said Coach Hill "had taught football tactics as well as life tactics. . . He is known as the coach who never loses."

Honor The Dead
ALTHOUGH the focal point of the modern funeral service has become the assumption of the grief of the bereaved, the reverence due to the deceased by no means has been neglected. Indeed, the more mature understanding of the psychological aspects of the funeral service and its lasting effects on the bereaved have directed a new emphasis on the honoring of the dead.

CALLING ALL HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS: Nurse-announcer, Sylvia Vincent (left) of Barlow Hospital's School of Nursing Staff in New York City broadcasts an urgent appeal: "Girls - I have a booklet here that may change your life. It's free. On the cover are these words: 'How You Can Become A Nurse'." The one-minute radio message, beamed in this station by 58 radio stations, urges high schools to write for up-to-date information describing nursing as a career. Looking on is student nurse Yvonna Alveranga, "cover girl" of the new nurse recruitment booklet now being requested by hundreds of young women who have heard the radio appeals or read about the booklet in newspapers. Sponsored by EL-LAB, Inc., the recruitment drive is aimed at reducing the critical nurse shortage in the nation by drawing more trainees to nursing schools.

No Changes In Redistricting Bill

The controversial ward redistricting bill will undergo only minor revisions, according to an announcement by Alderman DeWitt Lawson, chairman of the St. Louis Aldermanic Legislation committee.

Lawson says he hopes the redistricting bill can be reported out of committee early Friday, June 15. Plans call for final approval by the Board of Aldermen by next week and before the sum-

More ACTION Members Jailed

A City Judge handed down stiff punishment this week as a rebuff to two civil rights demonstrators associated with ACTION. The defendants, Marvin E. Mosby, 4024 Evans Ave., and Ivory Perry, 8111 Raymond, were arrested May 12 during a demonstration in front of the Laclede Gas Company, 1017 Olive St. They were fined $500 each and sentenced to 60 days in the City

Kinloch Sgt. Is Demoted

A Kinloch police sergeant was recently demoted to corporal and suspended for ten days from the force in an action upheld by a 7-3 decision of the Kinloch Board of Aldermen and sanctioned by Mayor Clarence W. Lee. The action reportedly was taken because of the officers' handling of a recent traffic arrest. Suspended and demoted is Fred West, long-time member of the Kinloch Police Department. West, who asked county prosecuting attorney Daniel V. O'Brien to check the legality of the action, was denied a hearing by the Kinloch officials. Kinloch city attorney, Edward J. Wright, ruled that the suspension and demotion action was legal and will become effective Saturday, June 16. Wright said that under state laws the Board of Aldermen may take any action on hiring or firing of policemen.

Government

Jobs Available

Applicants are being sought by the Federal Government for temporary civilian positions with various Army Reserve Units throughout the States of Missouri and Illinois (including Chicago). These are administrative type jobs and the requirements include an ability in type and experience in the administration of military supply procedures. The salary is $1600 a year. Full information about these positions may be obtained from the Army Board of Civil Service Examiners, 208 North Broadway, St. Louis.

The bill would change the boundaries of all wards, but none like the eighth ward would be affected more drastically than others. Eighth Ward Alderman Joseph Martinez, announced he will oppose an amendment to keep the present boundaries of his ward.

Workhouse on a charge of general peace disturbance by City Judge George W. Cady. The two men were accused of putting chains on one of two doors leading to the gas company at closing time.

According to reports, police had to use a bolt cutter to un-chain the door. Police said that Perry sprawled in front of both doors blocking the exit of hundreds of homebound employees while Mosby chained shut one of the doors.

Mosby and Perry, who represent a new civil rights group called ACTION, said that they were calling public attention to the need for more jobs for Negroes, especially men. Judge Cady fined Perry another $200 and 30 days in jail for his participation earlier in a demonstration on March 16, to which the defendants obstructed the traffic on the highway. Both men have filed a notice of appeal against the sentences. They are free on bond.
